Debt-Free Justice: Adult Criminal Justice Fees

Ellen McDonnell
Chief Assistant Public Defender
Contra Costa County Office of the Public Defender

You Remember?

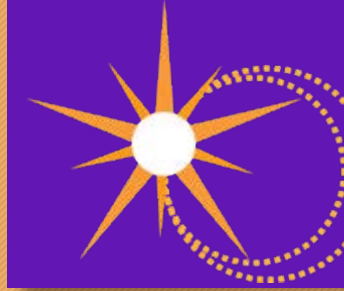

We Started with Juvenile Justice Fees in 2016

Throughout 2016, RSG conducted original research and supported collective advocacy to end the County's practice of charging parents a daily fee when their children were in county detention or on probation.

The County had charged parents up to $30/day ($900/month), and this often resulted in thousands of dollars of debt.

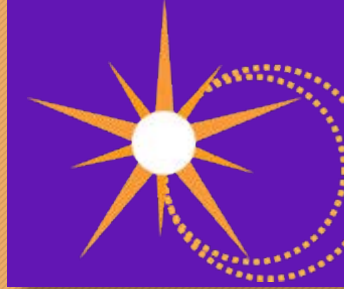

You Remember? We Started with Juvenile Justice Fees in 2016

RSG's research found that many families had been charged fees unlawfully.

You Remember?

We Started with Juvenile Justice Fees in 2016

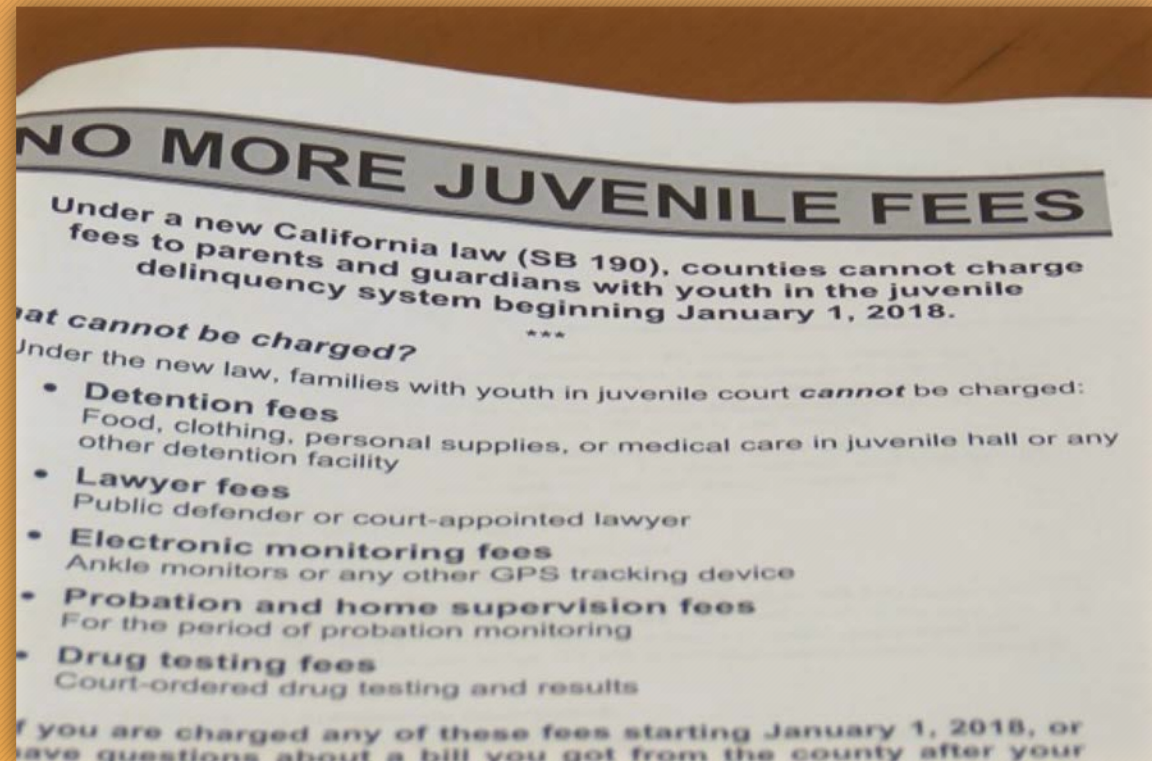

In response to public pressure, in late 2016 Contra Costa eliminated all juvenile justice fees:
probation, incarceration, drug testing, electronic monitoring.

And Contra Costa became the first county in the nation to begin to refund fees to families that had been unlawfully charged.

Juvenile Justice Fees Ended Statewide: 2017

A year later,
Senate Bill 190 eliminated juvenile justice fees
in all counties in California.

Before juvenile justice fees were eliminated, they were governed by only a few state statutes, and they were managed within each county.

But the role of money in the adult justice system is much more complicated.

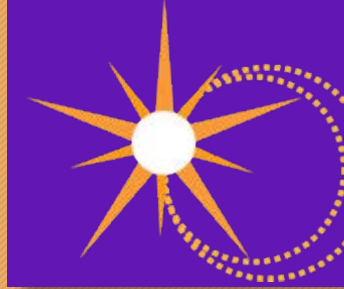

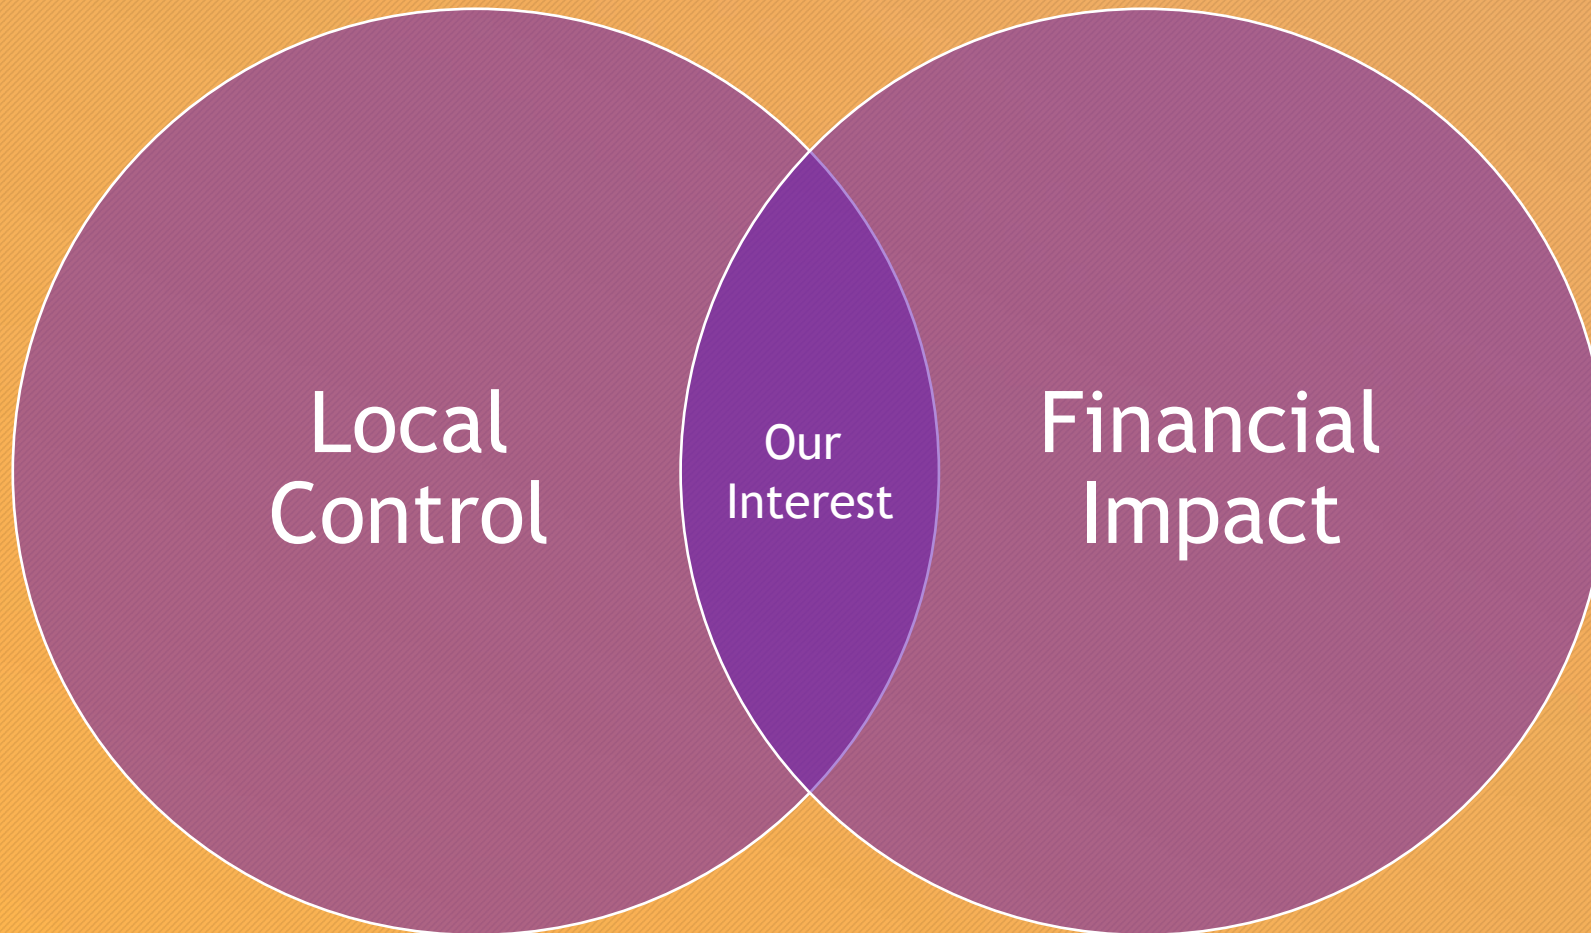

According to one study,*
California's adult criminal justice statutes codify two hundred and sixty-nine court fees, fines, surcharges, penalty assessments, and forfeiture (more on forfeiture, later).

*Nieto, M., California Research Bureau, "Who Pays For Penalty Assessment Programs in California?" (2006). California Agencies. Paper 317.

Because there are so many different fees, imposed by both the state and the county,
remedying the problem of adult criminal justice fees is really complicated.

Our Focus: Local Control and Financial Impact

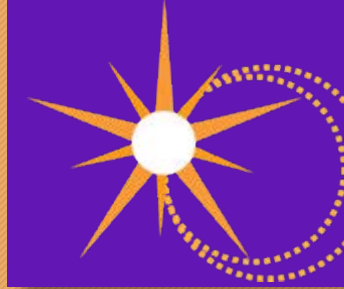

Our Focus: Local Control and Financial Impact

Other than the numbers-crunchers (and the public defenders), nobody in authority really noticed these fees,
their cumulative impact,
their inequity,
or whether the process was done properly.

What Did We Find for CoCo?

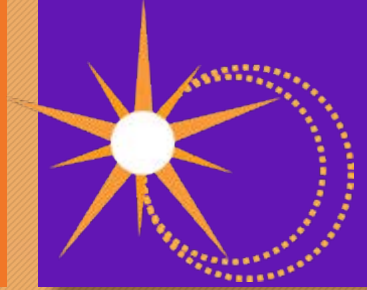

Adult Criminal Justice Fees that Generate Revenue for Contra Costa County

Custody Alternative Facility Fee	$568,541	Drug Diversion Fee: PC 1000	$44,309

Per RSG original research, drawing on documents provided by the Contra Costa County Superior Court, in response to a public records request

We Asked the Supervisors to Fix This System

- Produce analysis: Asked BOS to direct County Administrator to produce accounting of justice fees in Contra Costa County.
- Eliminate all County-imposed criminal justice fees
- Discharge all associated debt:
 - Much of this debt may have been unlawfully assessed and imposed.
 - Much of it is essentially uncollectible.
 - Even when uncollected, it harms individuals and families: Tax refund intercepts, wage garnishment, and bank levies

Remedying Adult Criminal Justice Fees

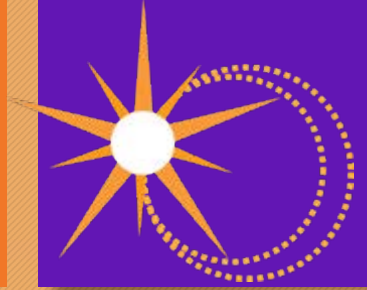

On Tuesday, September 17, 2019,
the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors voted to impose a moratorium on the assessment or collection of all county-imposed criminal justice fees.

Remedying Adult Criminal Justice Fees

This means Contra Costa is no longer imposing new fees and has suspended all efforts to collect past County-fee debts.

Remedying Adult Criminal Justice Fees

With this action
Contra Costa became the third county in the nation to suspend or repeal its so-called justice fees.*

*Alameda and San Francisco are the other two counties in the nation.

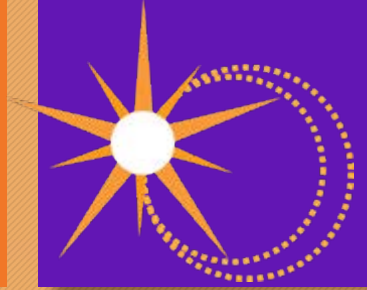

These are What's Covered by the Moratorium

Costs that are NOT Addressed in the Moratorium

The moratorium applies only to these criminal justice “administrative fees” imposed by the county.

It does not affect criminal justice fines, restitution, state-imposed fees, or civil asset forfeiture.

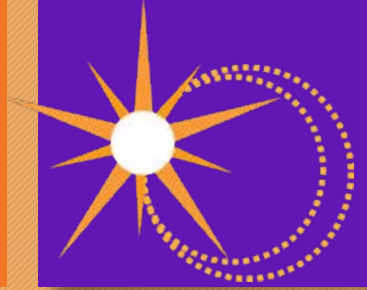

Next Step for Adult Criminal Justice Fees

At a special meeting of the Public Protection Committee yesterday:

- Supervisors received staff report on status of implementation
- Directed County Administrator staff to reiterate moratorium info to all agencies, including Court, Sheriff's Office
- Directed County Administrator staff to establish a Work Group to identify available additional data, provide oversight to implementation efforts
- Directed the Work Group to report back to PPC on Monday, November 4, 2019

The Steady, Persistent Drumbeat of Change

Donté Blue
Deputy Director
Contra Costa County Office of Reentry and Justice

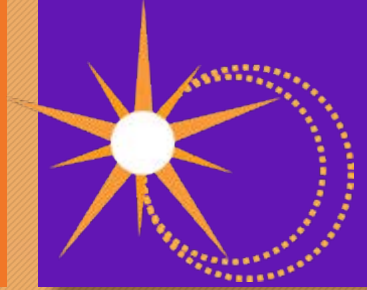

Remember how things were in 2011?

Remember when the fact that the President wore a tan suit was enough to catalyze outrage?

2011

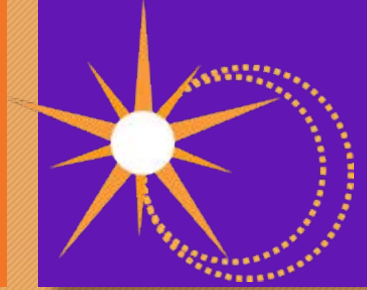

- April: Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109, “Prison Realignment”) is passed. Transfers responsibility from state to counties to manage people with non-serious, non-sexual, non-violent convictions
- June: RSG holds its first meeting
- October: AB 109 goes into effect.
- October: County creates a Community Corrections Partnership (CCP) and develops recommendations for spending initial AB 109 funds.

2012

- County establishes an AB 109 Community Advisory Board (CAB), first such body established in California after passage of AB 109
- Community stakeholders in Richmond begin advocacy for a One Stop Reentry Center in Richmond
- Community rallies to challenge CCP regarding 2012/2013 AB 109 budget recommendations, results in initial $3 million in AB 109 funding to support community-based alternatives to incarceration
- County produces an AB 109 Operations Plan, its first guiding document
- Voters in California pass Proposition 36 Three Strikes resentencing.

- April: Using AB 109 funds, County releases RFP for planning processes for One Stop Reentry Centers in three regions.
- May: Public Defender's Office has identified and addressed cases for all people eligible for resentencing under Prop 36 in Contra Costa.
- July: One Stop Reentry Planning processes begin in Central/East and in West (West County process was launched right here at RSG in July 2013)
- September: While working for Susun Kim at Bay Area Legal Aid, Donté Blue makes his first presentation at RSG, about Homeless Court.

2014

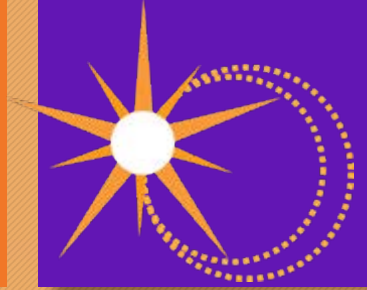

- April: County releases AB 109 funding to support the implementation plans for Reentry Centers (Network System of Care (East/Central) and Reentry Success Center (West)) are submitted to County for approval.
- May: Donté Blue becomes County Reentry Coordinator, replacing Jessie Warner.
- Summer: County begins Pretrial Release pilot program, funded by AB 109.
- November: Voters pass Proposition 47, reclassifying certain felonies to misdemeanors, with retroactive effect and predicted huge savings.
- November: Ellen McDonnell makes her first presentation at RSG.

2015

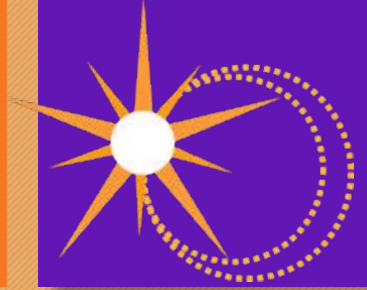

- January: Donté Blue takes over for Susun Kim as co-MC for RSG.
- April: Youth Justice Initiative begins, a systems-change effort to reduce justice-involvement for at-risk young people.
- October: State approves Traffic Ticket Amnesty Program, but it doesn't include amnesty for criminal justice fees.
- November: The Reentry Success Center opens its doors in Richmond.

2016

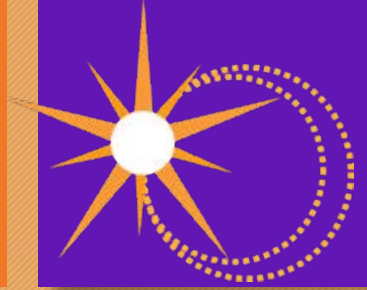

- January: In the context of Black Lives Matter and to respond to DA Peterson's claims of no racial bias in CoCo justice system, Racial Justice Coalition is born.
- March: Public Defender and partners serve hundreds at a community-based Clean Slate Day, reclassifying felonies to misdors, removing misdors through expungement (Clean Slate).
- March: RSG conducts r focus to juvenile justice, begins conducting extensive local research in partnership with Rosenberg Fellow Meredith Desautels.
- April: County establishes Racial Justice Task Force.
- Spring/Summer: Local advocacy begins to emerge regarding Sheriff's ICE policies and contract.
- October: County Supervisors impose moratorium on juvenile justice fees; becomes permanent in September 2017. CoCo is first in nation to reimburse parents who were wrongfully charged fees.

2017

- January: County establishes Office of Reentry and Justice, designed by CAB. Donté Blue becomes its Deputy Director.
- January: Richmond passes a Fair Chance in Housing municipal ordinance.
- June: District Attorney Peterson pleads guilty to a felony and resigns from office.
- July: In Antioch and Richmond, Public Defender implements Misdemeanor Early Representation project, funded by a federal grant and AB109.
- September: Judge Diana Becton is appointed as District Attorney.
- In California, VALUES Act joins TRUTH Act to limit local law enforcement's cooperation with federal ICE agencies
- November: RSG's research compels LCA to change its unlawful electronic monitoring practices.

2018

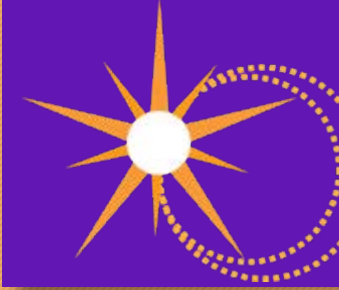

- Debt-free justice begins to arise as a statewide movement.
- January: Stand Together Contra Costa begins, a deportation defense initiative.
- January: Appellate decision in In re Humphrey shifts practice of bail across the state.
- January: In response to advocacy by RSG, Sheriff's Office agrees to create a workgroup to develop proper policies and practices for Custody Alternative Facility (CAF).
- May: San Francisco City and County ends criminal justice fees.
- August: Senate Bill 10 (ending money bail) signed into law. Within several months challenged by bail industry lobbyists who gather enough signatures to put it on the November 2020 ballot. Pending that vote, SB 10 does not go into effect.
- November: Alameda County ends criminal justice fees.

- January: RSG conducts original research and financial analysis of criminal justice fees in Contra Costa County; coalition requests County end these fees.
- January: RSG conducts original research and financial analysis of the DA's civil asset forfeitures in Contra Costa County and asks DA Becton to change these policies.
- February: In response to two years of research and advocacy, District Attorney Becton ends what I call “pay to play” private “courts” in Contra Costa.
- September: In response to our requests, DA Becton agrees to develop new policies for Civil Asset Forfeiture.
- September: Contra Costa County becomes the third county in the nation to end criminal justice fees.

So, Here We Are Today...

So, Here We Are Today...

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”

Usually (perhaps erroneously) attributed to Margaret Mead

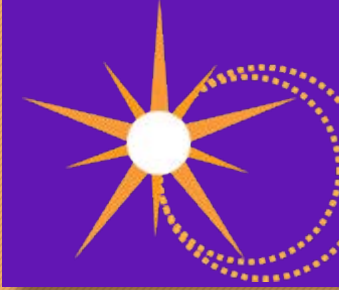

My Take On Our Story of Local Justice Reform?

*It may be true that, as Dr. King said,
“The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice.”*

But in my experience, it doesn’t bend on its own or fast enough, so you have to keep beating the hell out of it.

My Take On Our Story of Local Justice Reform?

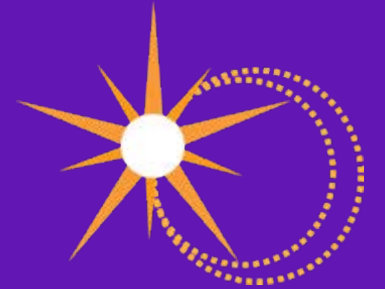

*For more than eight years,
with support and education and advocacy from all of you,
that's what RSG has tried to do:
Beat the hell out of the local arc of the moral universe.*

What's Next for Me?!

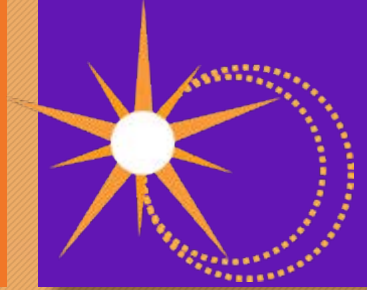

(No, I'm not leaving Contra Costa!)

Ongoing Local Pro Bono Policy Work

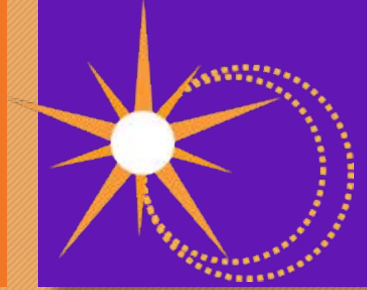

Ongoing Local Policy Work

1. Continuing research and advocacy regarding implementation of moratorium on CJ fees
2. Continuing technical assistance to develop Custody Alternative Facility Policies and Practices
3. Continuing research and advocacy regarding District Attorney's policies and practices Civil Asset Forfeiture

Custody Alternative Facility Policies

- Work group with Sheriff's Office, Ellen McDonnell, Donté Blue, and Rebecca
- Revising application and information policies and forms
- Ensuring clear explanation of moratorium on CAF fees and collections
- Developing equitable and progressive eligibility and review policies

Asset Forfeiture and Progressive Prosecution

Transparency

1. Annually produce public report on all asset forfeitures
2. Annually produce public report on use of DA's share and 15% fund

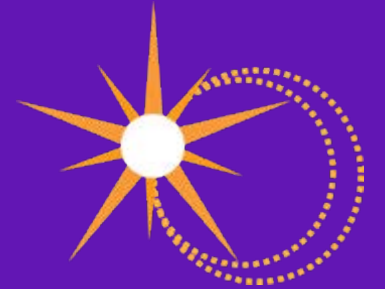

Procedural Justice

1. Develop clear and public policies for civil asset forfeiture
2. Improve notices provided to people when assets are seized
3. Ensure language access in all communications
4. Create dedicated informational web page, including who to contact at the the Public Defender's Office

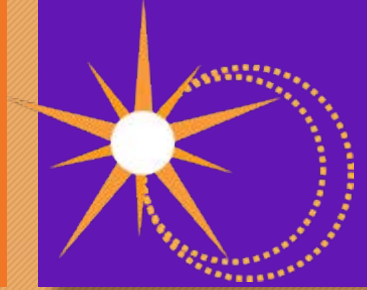

Progressive Practices

1. Automatically notify Public Defender's Office when assets are seized
2. Set minimum amounts subject to seizure
3. Waive forfeiture for low-level convictions, diversions
4. Except in case of criminal conviction, waive forfeiture even if Motion to Oppose was not filed on time.
5. Prohibit the use of seized assets in plea negotiations

LEAD: Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion

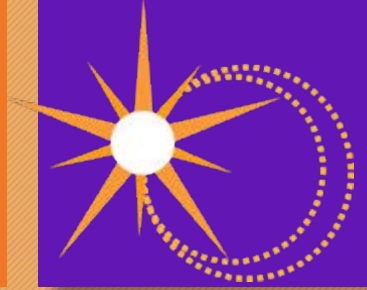

Public Defender Association/ LEAD® National Support Bureau

- National Support Bureau: project of Public Defender Association, a nonprofit based in Seattle
- Provides technical assistance, training, and strategic support to jurisdictions developing LEAD initiatives across the country and internationally

LEAD: Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion

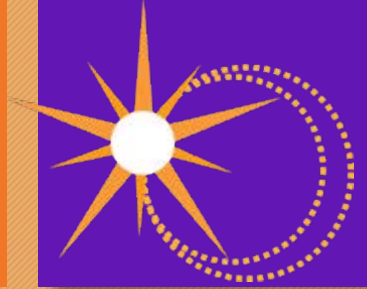

- Launched in 2011, LEAD® is nation's first pre-arrest, pre-booking diversion initiative
- Being replicated in 59 sites nationally, dozens queuing up

LEAD: Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion

- Reduces arrest and incarceration for people with behavioral illnesses
- Partnership with health, social services, and justice partners gives police officers an effective alternative to arrest
- Instead of arrest, officer diverts them into long-term, non-coercive case management

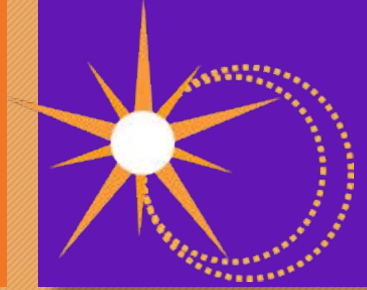

LEAD's Impacts

Evaluations of Seattle LEAD found:

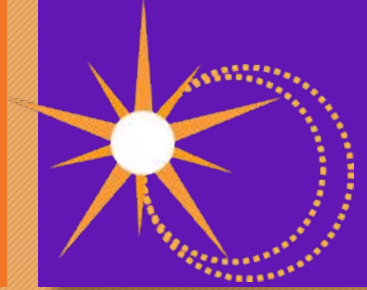

Rates of re-arrest	Decreased by 58%
New felonies filed	Decreased by 39%
Subsequent prison admissions	Decreased by 87%
Change in rates of permanent housing	Increased by 89%
Change in rates of legitimate income	Increased by 33%

LEAD: Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion

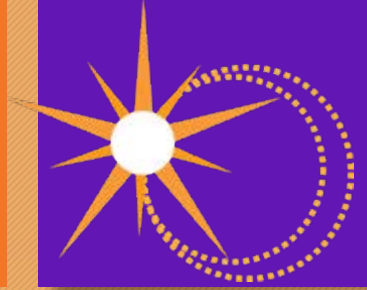

- Acclaimed by Obama administration, federally recognized as a “promising practice,” and generated federal funding
- Last week, LEAD innovator Lisa Daugaard won a MacArthur “Genius” award

My Role at LEAD

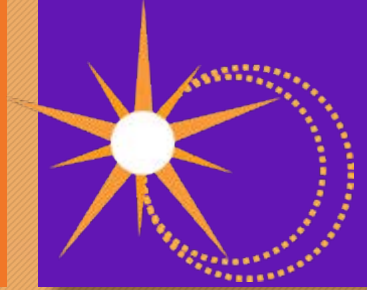

Joined the LEAD National Support Bureau
as Director of National Expansion
(working remotely from here in CoCo)

We Have LEAD Here at Home! CoCo LEAD Plus
